BUSINESS RESOLUTIONS

02/25	Enhancements to the APR Youth Leadership Training Programme
The conference <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Resolves that as part of the triennial plan for youth engagement, the Regional Scout Committee implement a workshop for NSOs that builds regional capacity, develops a framework and outlines a program that would enable NSOs to customise their local youth leadership development program; and 2. Encourages all NSOs to develop their localized youth leadership framework that ensures a roadmap in their respective NSO leading to strengthening of the movement.
03/25	Aligning Term of Office of the Asia-Pacific Scout Committee with the World Scout Committee
The conference requests <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Committee to review and propose an amendment to the APR Constitution to establish a three-year term of office for elected members of the Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Committee, in alignment with the World Scout Committee standard; and that each member elected by the Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Conference is elected until the next Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Conference and can be re-elected once. After two consecutive terms, a retiring member shall only be eligible for re-election after a lapse of three years. 2. That a Working group should be established to create a transition plan, update the constitution and any other relevant documents. This constitutional amendment and transition plan should be presented to the next Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Conference.
04/25	Ensuring Intergenerational Development Opportunities in the Future APR Leaders' Summit
The Conference: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Recommends that the APR Scout Committee provides the opportunity for one delegate under 30 from each NSO to attend the APR Leaders' Summit. 2. Urges all National Scout Organizations (NSOs) to actively ensure that at least one potential delegate to the World Scout Conference under 30 is meaningfully included and prepared alongside the other attendees of the summit, to build leadership readiness and intergenerational understanding of regional and global priorities. 3. Recommends that these measures be implemented prior to 2027, in preparation for the next Asia-Pacific Region Leaders' Summit, to ensure sustained capacity development and inclusive leadership representation across the Region. 4. Further recommends that the Asia-Pacific Regional Scout Committee, in collaboration with the Regional Youth Representatives (RYRs) and the World Scout Bureau – Asia-Pacific Support Centre, to ensure meaningful engagement of both youth and senior leadership and to facilitate youth empowerment and intergenerational dialogue both in the national and international level;

05/25	Formalizing Youth Membership and Voice on the Regional Scout Committee

The Conference

Requests the Regional Scout Committee to establish a working group to develop an implementation plan to achieve at least 30% representation and meaningful engagement of young people (below the age of 30) on all decision making bodies at the regional level, and asks the working group to consider the concepts below:

- a. Additional Voting Member: In addition to the Chairperson, the RYRs shall be allocated one additional seat carrying full voting rights. The RYR member representing this additional seat will be selected on a rotational basis as illustrated in Point C.
- b. Rotational Service: The Additional Voting Member shall be occupied by one RYR member on a rotational basis. The RYRs and the RSC shall, at the beginning of each term, establish and agree upon a schedule of service to determine which members shall fill these voting seats.
- c. Observer Status: Any RYR member not serving as a voting member in a given meeting shall serve as an ex-officio observer. Observers shall have the right to attend all Committee meetings and participate in discussions, but shall not have the right to vote.
- c. Integrating Intergenerational Viewpoints: To amend the standard meeting protocol by intentionally allocating time on each major agenda item to invite sharing of perspectives across generations, including from members under 30, ensuring that a diverse range of viewpoints informs the discussion before moving forward.

The Regional Scout Committee shall present a report detailing the findings and propose any necessary changes to the regional structures (including potential Constitutional Amendments) at the next Regional Scout Conference.
