Asia Pacific Region Best Practices on Youth-Led Community-Based Projects 2022-2025

Dear Colleagues,

Greetings from the Asia-Pacific Support Center!

We are pleased to share the Asia-Pacific Regional Best Practices on Youth-Led Community-Based Projects 2022–2025 Report.

This report documents a range of youth-led initiatives across the region, demonstrating how young people are actively contributing to community development through service, leadership, and collaboration. The featured projects reflect the Movement's core values and highlight practical approaches to strengthening youth engagement and community-based action.

More than a compilation of experiences, the report provides insights that can support National Scout Organizations (NSOs) and partners in enhancing youth participation and building environments where young people are empowered to lead.

We extend our appreciation to the Regional Youth Representatives, National Scout Organizations, contributors, and partners for their valuable contributions to this publication.

Thank you for your continued commitment to strengthening Scouting and advancing youth-led development in the Asia-Pacific Region.

With best regards,

J. Rizal C. Pangilinan
Regional Director
